

DEFINED DUTIES OF MULHALL

Chief Representative of Manufacturers Association Before Probers

CHECKS FOR EMPLOYEES

In the Government Service Were Made Payable to Mulhall and Were Given for Courtesies Extended—Had No Secret Room.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Aug. 12.—James A. Emery, chief representative of the National Association of Manufacturers here defined to the Senate lobby committee today the duties of Martin M. Mulhall, who claimed to be that association's lobbyist.

"Mulhall kept me supplied with copies of bills and public documents in relation to the work here and got information of the status of legislation in which we were interested. In this work he gathered information and learned the views of members of congress. He made inquiries about hearings and requested an opportunity for me to appear," said Emery.

Emery denied flatly that Henry Neal and Harry Parker, two negro employees at the capitol were in the pay of the manufacturers. Mulhall swore that for almost a year Emery gave him each month a $100 check, of which $50 was to go to I. H. McMichael, one-time chief page of the House and $50 went to Park and Neal. Emery denied he ever drew such a check. He declared Mulhall told him he had a friend at the capitol who could get the public documents and bills. Later Emery learned the friend was McMichael.

Emery testified however, that he did draw a check for $50, sent it to Mulhall and told him to divide it between Neal and Parker "merely to pay for the many courtesies they performed for our members."

"Did you ever make any payments to Mulhall for McMichael?" asked Attorney Carter for the manufacturers.

"Yes," said the witness. "It never exceeded $20 a month and it terminated when I left for Europe in 1910."

The payments were made, he said, for services in getting bills and documents and for courtesies.

"Too absurd to contemplate," said Emery when McMichael asked him about the secret room in the capitol that Mulhall swore was furnished to the association by Congressman McDermott of Illinois.

HEARING IS SET FOR NEXT WEEK

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Aug. 12.—The hearing before Secretary of State Graves to determine the validity of the petitions for referendums on the Warnes and Kilpatrick bills, will be held on Wednesday of next week. It was erroneously announced the hearing would be held one day of this week.

TRIBESMEN KILL BRITISH NATIVE INDIAN SOLDIERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Aden, Arabia, Aug. 12.—Official dispatches today announced that a camel corps of British native troops had been ambushed by a force of 2000 Dervishes near Burao. The British killed and wounded include two officers and about sixty men. Many thousands of the Mad Mullah tribesmen are on the war path.

A small remnant of the ambushed camel corps was found late yesterday by a flying squadron of 300 picked men, sent from here to the scene of the trouble. All that was left of the little band of British soldiers were entrenched in rough country 18 miles southwest of Burao, which is in the center of the British Somaliland protectorate.

The English losses include one white British officer killed and one wounded. The others killed and wounded are Indian natives. Heavy losses were inflicted on the Dervishes.

The British commissioner and commander-in-chief, Horace Byatt, has advised the Colonial office in London that the tribesmen are likely to attack the town of Burao.

DRIFTED ALL NIGHT.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Aug. 12.—Thomas Biallel, an importer and member of the New York Coffee Exchange, was rescued from the lower bay today after drifting helplessly all night in a disabled motorboat. Toward dawn his craft was swept directly in the path of a tug towing a line of scows and to save himself Biallel plunged into the water. Seizing a hauler he climbed hand over hand to the deck of a scow.

Shall Big Corporations And Privileged Interests Control Taxation In Ohio?

We have it on no less authority than J. W. Faulkner that there is but one vital question always before the people, viz: taxation. Either every other question pales into insignificance before it, or else, like the public highways of the Ancient Campagna, all lead to the one great central point.

As the French Bourbon always scornfully referred to '93 as the year in which he lost his divine right of privilege, likewise the favor-seeking corporations of Ohio point to the year '10 as the date when they lost the privilege of paying their taxes on a gross undervaluation of their property. Why? Because in this eventful year of 1910 there were enacted two laws, to-wit: The law creating the State Tax Commission, and the Smith One Per Cent law.

The State Tax Commission, by virtue of the authority vested in it, has determined the value of all public utilities in the State for the years of 1911, '12 and '13, and the tax duplicate of almost any county will reveal the astounding fact that prior to the year 1911 many of the large corporations were paying taxes on valuations as low, in many instances, as ten per cent of their true value in money. It must be said, however, that the banks during this reign of privilege, were taxed on a sixty per cent valuation of their capital stock—about the average assessed value of the property of the home owner and farmer. So, naturally, the banks are pleased with the operation of the law of 1910, creating a State Tax Commission, with power to value all utilities at their true value in money. By this act the public utility hog trough was upset and hauled away to the public dump, and ever since, like Rachel, the favor-seeking corporations have been weeping, and refuse to be comforted.

Fortunately, the State Tax Commission needs no defense, because its wisdom and justice is entered into the tax duplicate of every county in Ohio. Neither does the Smith One Per Cent law, for it has proved to be one of the most vital reforms ever entered upon the Ohio statute books.

As a result of these reforms, the small home owner is not compelled to bear more than his just share of the burdens of taxation.

There is no danger of the special interests ever being able to repeal or amend these just laws in an open, frank discussion, with the people sitting in judgment as the final arbiters. But there is danger of undermining or annulling these laws by insidious means, as witness the attempt of these interests during the last year, in some parts of the state, to amend Secs. 5404 and 5405, G. C., which, if they had succeeded, would have made it impossible for a County Auditor to determine the value of the property of a corporation in accordance with the decisions of the courts, and would have finally resulted in self-assessment and a rehabilitation of the aforesaid hog trough as it existed in the eventful year 1910.

Now, with these facts well in mind, and with the further fact that these same special interests, through associations financed by them, have opposed each and every one of these humane and progressive laws, as advocated by every governor since the days of the lamented McKinley, does it seem reasonable that they are honest when they instruct their paid circulators of referendum petitions on the Kilpatrick and Warnes taxation measures to instruct the people that the former law kills the Smith One Per Cent law, notwithstanding the fact that the Attorney General has decided that it saves the One Per Cent law, and the latter introduces a very objectionable inquisitorial system of valuing personal property? Or would it seem more reasonable, with their previous record before us, and with the record of kindred organizations, as revealed by the Mulhall investigations, that they are attempting, Greek-like, to give the people a large wooden horse?

And, again, if the self-assessing system advocated by the special interests is better than the appointed assessor, why limit the right of a tax-payer to self-assessment to personal property only? Why not include his real estate also? Under such an ideal system the tax-payer ought to be able to reduce his taxes by controlling and fixing the valuation on both his personal and real property. An Utopian dream—but, look out for the "hog trough."

TOWNSHIP FUNDS JEOPARDIZED BY BANK FAILURE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Tiffin, O., Aug. 12.—Funds of Bloom township, amounting to about $20,000 are involved in the failure of the Exchange Bank of Bloomville. This was made known by township officials today.

The funds of the village and the school district are also involved but not to such a great extent. A similar condition is said to exist at Sycamore, where the People's Saving Bank, a sister institution of the Exchange Bank also closed doors Saturday.

KILLED IN FALL FROM FOURTH FLOOR WINDOW

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Aug. 12.—David C. Preyer, an art critic of international reputation, fell early today from a window on the fourth floor of an apartment house in Central Park west and was instantly killed.

Mr. Preyer was 60 years old. He had written extensively for the publications of the Metropolitan Museum of Art. A sufferer from asthma, it is believed that he fell to his death while seeking fresh air.

STREETS OF MINOT CROWDED

Last Night When I. W. W. Attempted to Hold Meetings

PRISONERS FILL JAILS

But Police Have Situation Well in Hand—Attempt to Organize a Union Among Farm Hands of North Dakota.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Minot, N. D., Aug. 12.—Further trouble in connection with the attempts of Industrial Workers of the World to hold street meetings and organize a union among farm hands was anticipated by authorities today with the arrival of a band of Industrial Workers from Minneapolis.

Although the streets were crowded during most of last night, the police and deputies had the situation in hand and there was no rioting, nor were there any attempts by the Industrial Workers to hold meetings. The prisoners in the city and county jails numbering more than one hundred began singing and howling shortly before midnight and the din continued unabated for some hours.

Prisoners in the county jail appeared before Judge Murray of the county court late yesterday and were granted a continuance until Monday. Each demanded a jury trial. City jail prisoners were to be given a hearing today. City Commissioner Dewey Dorman and former Mayor Arthur Leseur, both Socialists, still are in jail, having refused to give bond.

Only five arrests were made last night and early today.

Incensed over alleged insults to the American flag, citizens attacked Industrial Workers early last evening, and scenes of excitement followed. The police were unable to control the rioters and called upon the sheriff and the fire department. A threatening mob surged about the overcrowded jail, but later the crowd began to thin out.

The Industrial Workers have been urging harvest hands to hold out for higher pay.

I. W. W. LEADERS LEAVE MINNEAPOLIS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 12.—Seventy-five members of the Industrial Workers of the World have left Minneapolis for Minot, N. D., to help defend members engaged in warfare with the authorities there, according to Charles E. Berg, in charge of the headquarters of the Industrial Workers here. More will leave soon, he says.

"We'll force our rights to hold street meetings at Minot if it takes 1,000 men," declared Berg. "We'll tell their jails so full that they can't make any more arrests."

The Minneapolis officers said that striking workers will be sent from Duluth, if necessary, to wage a fight for striking miners at Minot.

HORSE STUMBLER; DRIVER YANKED FROM HIS SEAT

Charles Rice driver for William Graef, agent for the Torie Haute Brewing company, sustained severe cuts about the head and a badly bruised leg Tuesday about noon when he was jerked from the wagon seat when the horse stumbled near Second and North Park Place. After Rice was pulled from the seat, the horse ran away and dashing north on Second street, attempted to turn the corner at Locust street. At that point, he slipped and fell, overturning the wagon. The animal was stopped before any further damage was done.

Rice was removed to the home of Mr. Graef in Clinton street and later went to the office of a physician where the injuries were dressed. He is not seriously hurt.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH FIRING HOME OF MOTHER-IN-LAW

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Ada, O., Aug. 12.—Mary Garlinger, aged 45, is under arrest here charged with burning the house owned by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Wm. Garlinger, on July 25. She is alleged to have made a confession to a deputy state fire marshal.

Seven attempts are said to have been made to burn the house. The motive is alleged to have been revenge, because the woman was not permitted to remove some furniture from the house.

There are 100,000 domestic animals in Ohio, including 7,210,000 sheep, 1,087,000 hogs, 1,361,000 goats, 196,000 horses and 225,000 jackasses.

NELSON O'SHAUGHNESSY.

First Secretary of the American Embassy in Mexico. He has charge of American interests pending the arrival of Ex-Governor John Lind of Minnesota.

Charge O'Shaughnessy Cables That Situation In Mexico City Is Quiet

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Aug. 12.—Charge O'Shaughnessy cabled the state department today that the situation in Mexico City was peaceful and quiet. His message was gratifying to administration officials who desire that all misunderstandings the Mexican government may have as to the intentions of the United States shall be cleared up before any further steps are taken in the peace policy of President Wilson.

The presentation of a note representing the views of President Wilson is expected soon, but the various steps in the American government's program will be carried out gradually.

The first note will be transmitted in duplicate to all foreign governments represented here and will declare for the first time in formal terms the attitude of the administration toward Mexico.

Administration officials who are hoping that European countries will lend their moral support to the efforts to adjust the Mexican situation peacefully were favorably impressed with the statement of the British government that the recognition of Huerta had been only a "recognition of a provisional president, pending an election," and was done on a theory that was "likely to assist in the restoration of order."

900 GARMENT WORKERS ARE ON A STRIKE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
St. Louis, Aug. 12.—Nine hundred garment workers struck today in obedience to the order issued by the joint board of the Cloak, Skirt and Ladies Tailors' Union.

SLIGHT RAINS FAIL OF EFFECT IN KANSAS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Kansas City, Aug. 12.—Clouds that hovered over wide sections of Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma yesterday, causing at most points a slight abatement of the intense heat, dropped light and for the most part ineffectual showers in scattered districts last night and today began disintegrating, leaving the thirsty fields and suffering populace facing the ninth consecutive day of extreme heat. The United States weather observer here said the maximum temperature over the three states would pass those of yesterday. And yesterday's maximum ran from about 95 to 110.

Reports from Topeka, Kansas say forenoon temperatures there point to the hottest August 12 since the establishment of the weather bureau. All Central Kansas was similarly afflicted and not a drop of rain fell. Topeka reports only one cloudy day in the last forty-three.

MOTORCYCLE COLLIDES WITH ELECTRIC CAR

William Olt, while riding a motorcycle north on Fifth street Monday evening collided with the 7 o'clock Ohio Electric car going to Granville. The two came together at the corner of Fifth and Main street and the rider was thrown from the cycle and the machine, which was an Excelsior, was damaged. The only injury Olt suffered was a mashed finger on the left hand.

ASSEMBLY CALLED IN SESSION

Gov. Sulzer's Opponents Predict Ordeal of Impeachment Trial

SEND AFTER ABSENTEES

Only 11 of 50 Absent Solons Needed to Make Up 76 Votes Necessary to Carry Out the Impeachment Program.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Albany, N. Y., Aug. 12.—The Democratic organization's plan to impeach Governor Sulzer on charges of diverting campaign contributions to his private use and swearing to a false statement of campaign receipts were halted for hours today by the realization of the leaders that they lacked votes enough to put through their program.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon three hours after the time set for the Assembly to convene, the leaders still lacked a handful of followers to bring the vote on the resolution to impeach up to the required majority of 76. Stay-at-home members, most of them from New York City summoned to the capitol by volleys of telegraphic appeals were then reported on their way to Albany. The New York City contingent was expected here at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The test of the strength in the Assembly last night showed that the majority could muster but 65 votes, 11 short of a majority. The eleven necessary votes were on their way to Albany, the leaders said at 2 o'clock.

Assemblyman Schaamp, Progressive leader, told Governor Sulzer today that he was convinced "the organization would crack the whip" and get the votes to impeach today.

During the crisis the governor remained in the seclusion of his office, sending out for his lunch.

Governor Sulzer's champions today are chiefly Progressives and Republicans. In the senate where will be tried the articles of impeachment should the program go through, every Republican member met in informal fashion at a hotel and decided to try the case on its merits.

SENTENCED SIX ORGANIZERS TO THE WORKHOUSE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Pittsburg, Aug. 12.—"You're a fine looking lot to be educating among workmen," declared Magistrate W. D. Mansfield in police court this morning when he sentenced five men and one woman, Industrial Workers of the World organizers, to the workhouse because they flatly refused to pay the fines imposed upon them for violation of a city ordinance.

Solomon Ehrlich, Victor Brohman, P. Kocha, Louis Mikolusky, Michael Duroso and Cecia Lipschultz were arrested last night for addressing street crowds without a permit from the police. In court today they refused to be sworn, and in justification of her act, the woman declared she had broken no law, but was only "educating American workmen" as the Americans were too slow to educate themselves.

Another Industrial Worker organizer, Mrs. Mathilda Rabinovitz, is serving a workhouse sentence imposed last week for the same offense.

SUPPLY SHIP TO BRING BACK REFUGEES TO U. S.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Aug. 12.—American refugees on the cruiser Pittsburgh at United States will be brought home on the supply ship Glacier. Because of increased military operations at Guaymas the Pittsburgh will remain on guard duty and be reinforced by the South Dakota now on her way from San Francisco.

STRICKERS ATTACK EMPLOYES AT WORK

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Genoa, Italy, Aug. 12.—Savage scenes were enacted here today in an attack on the headquarters of the non-strikers by the strikers, who compose a majority of the laborers in this city. The strikers also attacked taxicab chauffeurs and street car employees who had continued at work.

An unsuccessful attempt was made to raid the government dockyards where several Italian war vessels are under construction.

STRICKERS CLASH WITH POLICE.
Pisa, Aug. 12.—This is the only city in Italy where the strike has become general. Several conflicts occurred today between the strikers and the police. Both sides sustained many casualties.

HOW MRS. BROWN SUFFERED

During Change of Life—How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Well Woman.

Iola, Kansas.—"During the Change of Life I was sick for two years. Before I took your medicine I could not bear the weight of my clothes and was bloated very badly. I doctored with three doctors but they did me no good. They said nature must have its way. My sister advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I purchased a bottle. Before it was gone the bloating left me and I was not so sore. I continued taking it until I had taken twelve bottles. Now I am stronger than I have been for years and can do all my work, even the washing. Your medicine is worth its weight in gold. I cannot praise it enough. If more women would take your medicine there would be more healthy women. You may use this letter for the good of others."—Mrs. D. H. BROWN, 309 N. Walnut St., Iola, Kan.

Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

RAILROADER IS CHARGED WITH BIGAMY

Married Cambridge Girl In July, 1912, and Newark Girl in April, 1913—Court News.

James Parker, a local B. & O. railroader is now in jail, having failed to give $500 bond. Parker is charged with bigamy and the case will be heard before Justice George W. Horton, Thursday morning.

Parker, it is charged, married Anna Atkinson of Cambridge, July 20, 1912, and on April 17, 1913, took unto himself another wife, Miss Lena Hockley, of this city. He was arrested Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Rhinehart on an affidavit sent by his first wife, who lives in Cambridge.

Suit for Divorce.

When Webster Greenway threw a coffee pot, a milk bottle of heavy glass, a tea kettle and other articles at the head of his wife and called her vicious names, the marital harmony which had existed was seriously damaged. On August 8, Webster, it is alleged, beat his wife on the back with a club and threw a pipe at her.

Margaret Greenway, the wife, has entered suit for alimony and an injunction was issued to prevent the Wehrle company from paying its indebtedness to the husband. He is an employe there and earns about $50.00 per month. Greenway refused to pay interest on the mortgage, the property belonging to his wife. He failed to provide the necessities of life, it is also alleged. They have one child, two years of age.

NEWARK GOLFERS AT COSHOCTON ON THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The members of the Newark golf team of the Licking Country club will go to Coshocton Thursday for the regularly scheduled contest with the crack players of that city. While Newark hopes to win, the opponents to whose lot it will fall to play against Clow and Montcomery are dubious about playing these two crack golfers on their own course. However, Newark will go prepared for a hard battle and will play the best game possible under the circumstances.

TYPHOID SITUATION IS MUCH IMPROVED

With no new cases reported in the past eight days, Health Officer W. H. Knaus believes that the situation regarding the typhoid fever epidemic is materially improved. It was pretty well established that the city water was free from any suspicion as being the cause of the cases. Practically all of them were reported in families where well water was used, extensively, if not exclusively. The department's investigation included the inspection of several hundred farms in various parts of Licking and adjoining counties where the victims had visited, or where their milk and butter supplies were secured.

KEOKUK PITCHER ESTABLISHES A WORLD'S RECORD

(Associated Press Telegram)
Keokuk, Iowa, Aug. 12.—William Whittaker, pitcher for the Keokuk Central Association team yesterday set what is believed here to be a world's record when he pitched 21 consecutive scoreless innings in a double-header between the Keokuk and Waterloo teams.

Keokuk won both games, 1 to 0, the second going twelve innings. But five hits were made off Whittaker's delivery.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH LEADING A DISSOLUTE LIFE

One of the two women who was arrested in the Graef saloon on Fourth street Sunday afternoon in company with Graef and two men, was arraigned in probate this morning on the charge of leading a dissolute life and failure to provide proper moral training for her four children. The two younger children will probably be sent temporarily to the Children's Home and other provisions will be made for the two older children.

The woman claimed to have been a nurse and that she had been attending Graef in his illness. The children testified that Graef had been rooming at the house and the testimony indicated misconduct. The mother lives on Baltimore street and is an agent, selling patterns and other articles, claiming that she makes a living for the children in this way. The children, Lottie, James, John and Lucy, aged 17, 16, 11 and 10, respectively, were well dressed and appeared to be well taken care of. The oldest girl and boy have employment.

The younger children were sent to the home until the father, whom the mother claims is now reconciled and will help support the family, can return to have a hearing. He has been away from home the majority of the time and has not been providing for his children.

The woman and Graef were arrested with their companions Sunday by Chief of Police Sheridan and Graef was sent to the Sanitarium. He will be charged with violation of the Sunday closing laws. The woman pleaded that the younger children be sent to the home of a friend in the city instead of the Children's Home and the matter was taken under advisement. Judge Hunter held that the children were not receiving the proper moral training.

JAPS WILL NOT RECEIVE DIAZ AS SPECIAL ENVOY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Tokio, Aug. 12.—The Japanese government intimated today to the Mexican government that it would not receive General Felix Diaz as special envoy to Japan to express the thanks of Mexico for Japanese participation in the Mexican centennial. It declared that it would receive General Diaz only as a private individual.

The Diaz party left Seattle yesterday for Vancouver, whence they planned to sail on Wednesday.

Gen. Felix Diaz was appointed special envoy to Japan on July 17, and left Mexico City two days later. He intended to proceed to Japan by way of Los Angeles and Vancouver. In Los Angeles he was met by a hostile demonstration from opponents of the present provisional government of Mexico and was kept there for several days in consequence of the receipt of lengthy despatches from Mexico City.

It was announced on August 2 by Japanese legation in Mexico City that the emperor of Japan would be absent from the Imperial palace for several weeks.

COMMENT AT WASHINGTON.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Aug. 12.—Japan's intimation to Mexico that it would not receive General Felix Diaz, only as a private individual and not as a special envoy, attracted widespread comment in official quarters. Coming at a time when negotiations are proceeding between Japan and the United States in California alien land question, this action of Japan toward Mexico was generally construed as showing a desire on the part of Japan to avoid anything open to the construction of being unfriendly to the United States.

The present move is thought to be along the lines of keeping Japan quite apart from any apparent participation in pending political or diplomatic questions relating to Mexico.

CURTIS JAMES TAKES CHARGE HOTEL SEILER

The hotel Seiler has a new proprietor, Mr. Curtis James, the well known restaurant man of this city, took charge Monday afternoon. Mr. James is making plans for the remodeling of the hotel, a re-arrangement of the dining room and will give the very best service to his patrons.

The new proprietor has been in the city about a year, managing a wholesale and retail plant for the Gambirinus Brewing company, at 11 North Fourth. Previous to that time he owned and operated a restaurant in Alliance, O. He was born and brought up in this city and has been in the restaurant business practically all his life. This experience puts him on a familiar footing in the hotel business and the many patrons of the Seiler hotel and friends of Mr. James are glad to see him behind the desk in his new place of business. He has given up the agency for Gambirinus and as yet no successor has been chosen.

GRAND PARADE OF KNIGHTS TEMPLAR AT DENVER TODAY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Denver, Aug. 12.—Modernized pagantry, as developed from the days of the crusades to the present time was witnessed today as the grand parade of the Knights Templar, in 32nd triennial convocation here, moved through the streets of Denver. The procession marked the official opening of the convocation of the grand encampment of the United States.

The column of 30,000 plumed Knights from all the states of the union moved along a course of nearly four miles of gaily decorated streets jammed with visiting and Denver spectators. In the first division was Grand Master Wm. B. Melish of Cincinnati and other grand officers with their special escort, consisting of Thirty Commanders No. 44 of Cincinnati and the mounted Knights of California Commandery No. 1.

At the head of the column approached the stadium, a brief halt was made to permit the officers to take their positions in the reviewing stand. Again the column moved forward, this time across the parade grounds.

The opening business session of the encampment was a feature of the afternoon.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Denver, Aug. 12.—With the grand parade of approximately thirty thousand Knights Templar, the thirty-second triennial convocation formally opened in Denver this morning. Promptly at 10:30 o'clock the calls of buglers sounding the forward march brought into official life the convocation which is regarded by many Sir Knights as the most ambitious in the history of the order.

The parade was divided into fourteen divisions, with from 1,500 to 2,000 in each. Escorting the Knights Templars was Sir Alexander Nesbitt, director of police with his assistants, followed by the mounted police, and police aides. Sir John Chase, Denver, grand marshal of the parade, preceded Sir Arthur H. Williams, chief of staff, who was followed by the grand marshal's staff and personal aides representing grand commanderies. Several score of bands interspersed throughout the line, played the martial airs of the templars faith, predominant among which was "Onward Christian Soldiers."

At night the first of the drills was to be given by Damascus Commandery No. 42, Detroit, at the drill stadium.

FIRE IN EBTT HOUSE.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Fire which started in an elevator shaft and broke through the roof of the historic Ebbt House shortly before 8 o'clock this morning created consternation among the guests but did little damage. A second alarm brought out all the downtown fire fighting apparatus and the blaze was soon under control.

CATHOLIC WOMEN BEGIN FORMATION NATIONAL LEAGUE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 12.—The formation of a national Catholic Women's League and an address by T. B. Minahan of Seattle, Wash., on the "Catholic American Citizen" will be the feature of today's session of the American Federation of Catholic Societies which are holding their twelfth annual convention here.

Committees on resolution and organization have been working for a year formulating plans for the women's societies and today the result of their work is expected to result in a definite organization.

Miss Elizabeth Marshall of Milwaukee has been mentioned as the first president of the new league.

In accordance with the wishes of Archbishop S. G. Messmer at yesterday's meeting, the women, it is predicted, will bar suffragettes from the discussions of the league. There is a great division of opinion among the men and women delegates here on women suffrage and it has practically been decided to prevent possible discord in the new league by prohibiting suffrage debates.

The third day's session of the convention opened with solemn requiem mass at St. Mary's church. A business meeting followed in one of the smaller halls of the auditorium at which time T. B. Minahan, the Rev. James H. Cotter of Houston, O., vice president of the Catholic Press association spoke. During the afternoon the Social Service conference will be resumed.

NO SEMI-MONTHLY PAYROLL FOR THE CITY EMPLOYEES

The only employees in Ohio whose wages are not to be paid at least twice a month, as provided in the Hudson law, now in force, are those who work for city or village governments. Municipal employes may be put on a fortnight pay roll, but not because of any compulsion by the new law.

Attorney General Hogan yesterday rendered an opinion that the law does not apply to municipal corporations, as they do not "do business" in the sense which these words are used in the statute.

The tapping of rubber trees is now done by an electrical device, which greatly facilitates the operation.

MOTIVE POWER SUPERINTENDENT AT WHEELING

Newark Man Advanced From Master
Mechanic to New Position, Effective at Once.

Incident to the resignation of E. J. Seales as district superintendent of motive power of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at Pittsburgh, G. A. Schmoll, who has filled a similar position at Wheeling, has been transferred to Pittsburgh to succeed Mr. Seales. The promotion of J. F. Bowden from master mechanic in the shops at Newark, O., to district superintendent of motive power at Wheeling to succeed Mr. Schmoll, is also announced. The changes are effective at once.

Mr. Schmoll was born at Fort Wayne, Ind., November 23, 1862, and first entered railway service as an apprentice in the shops of the Pennsylvania railroad in June, 1885. He later became machinist and was made shop foreman in January, 1902, and the following November became motive power inspector on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. Mr. Schmoll was advanced to master mechanic at Mount Clare in June, 1903, and in June, 1910, was promoted to superintendent of motive power at Wheeling, later being made district superintendent of motive power at the same post.

Mr. Bowden, the new district superintendent of motive power at Wheeling, served his apprenticeship in the Baltimore & Ohio shops at Keyser, W. Va., starting in March, 1885. He became roundhouse foreman at Grafton in September, 1895, and general foreman at Washington, D. C., November 1, 1898. He filled the same position at Cumberland and Benwood, W. Va., and was appointed master mechanic at Parkersburg, W. Va., in September, 1907, having been transferred to Garrett, Ind., December 1, 1908. Mr. Bowden was made master mechanic at Newark, O., in April, 1913.

Ready Instantly

Place a level teaspoonful of Instant Postum in an ordinary cup, pour on hot water, stir until dissolved, add sugar and cream to taste—

and you have instantly
a most delicious beverage

This makes Instant Postum right for most people. Some like it stronger and use a heaping teaspoonful and plenty of cream. Experiment until you get it right for your taste and have it always made that way.

INSTANT POSTUM

is regular Postum reduced to powder form and soluble in hot water.

Postum comes in two forms.

Regular Postum must be boiled.

Instant Postum requires no boiling, but is made in the cup—instantly.

Postum is a pure food-drink made from whole wheat and a small per cent. of New Orleans molasses. It is entirely free from the coffee drug, caffeine, and is used by hundreds of thousands who appreciate the comfort and advantage of being well.

If coffee don't agree, try Instant Postum.

PROPER THING NOW IS TO PEEL OFF SOILED SKIN.

(From Beauty's Mirror.)
Those who abhor sticky, greasy, shiny, streaked complexions, should religiously avoid creams, powders and rouges these heated days. There's no need for them, anyway, since the virtues of acrolein wax have become known. An amount of perspiration will produce any evidence that you've been using the wax. As it is applied at bedtime and washed off in the morning, the complexion never looks like a make-up. Mercerized wax gradually takes off a bad complexion, instead of adding anything to make it worse. It has none of the disadvantages of cosmetics and accomplishes much more in keeping the complexion beautifully white, shiny and youthful. Just get an ounce of it at your druggist's and see what a few days' treatment will do. Use like cold cream.
—heat tending to cause wrinkles and flabbiness—is a skin-tightener made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saxolite in 1/2 pt. witch hazel. Its use (as a face bath) leaves no trace.

Obituary

MRS. EDWARD OTTMAN.
Mrs. Audrey Ottman, wife of Edward Ottman, of the Myer & Lindorf Co. of Utica, O., died at her home on North Main street Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Ottman had complained more or less for some time, but not until recently was the matter considered to be of a serious nature. Monday morning at 8 o'clock an operation was performed by Dr. Essington, of Newark, for peritonitis. Complications set in, resulting in her death.
Mrs. Ottman was about 42 years of age, a member of the Presbyterian church, and one of the foremost of the promoters of the social and educational interests of the village.
A husband, two children, Florence and Alice, and a host of friends mourn the loss of one taken so untimely.

VINCENT HARRIS' CHILD.
The ten-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Harris of Bladensburg who died Sunday of cholera infantum, was buried Tuesday in the Grove cemetery.

MRS. HATTIE POWLESS.
Mrs. Hattie Francis Powless, wife of City Patrolman Frank Powless, died Tuesday morning at the home in Evans street, following a year's illness. The deceased was 34 years old, having been born in Pike county, October 20, 1878. Besides her husband she leaves several children. Funeral services will be held Thursday, the hour to be announced later. Burial at Cedar Hill cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS.
We desire to thank our friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us through the short illness and death of our dear baby, also to the choir and Rev. Lawrence for his kind and consoling words. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Neibarger and children.

GENERAL RAIN STORM BRINGS COUNTRY RELIEF

Washington, Aug. 12.—A general rain that brought a material drop in temperature is sweeping over practically the entire country today, east of the Rocky Mountains except the Great Middle West corn belt, where it is most needed.

In the region including Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Southern Illinois and part of Arkansas where there have been no rains for several weeks the corn crop is practically burning and weather bureau officials see no immediate prospect for relief.

Along the Atlantic coast and throughout the Great Lakes region there has been a drop of 37 degrees since Sunday.

FIFTH WEEK CARROLL'S HAIR GOODS EXHIBIT FIFTH WEEK

WILL CONTINUE THIS WEEK

Have you seen the very notable exhibit of Hair Goods arranged by this store? If not, and if you are at all interested in hair accessories for producing a fashionable coiffure, we urge you to come and view this very large and remarkable display.

We ask you specially to notice the assortments of fashionable switches—the new stemless switches, the extra long and extra fine switches. Notice also the variety of shades shown. Indeed the assortments are so large that it is possible to match practically every shade of hair, even the rarest.

If you know what hair goods of quality usually sell for you will be agreeably surprised with the prices here, which are not only moderate, but are remarkably low.

If you have had difficulty in getting a switch to match your hair, we think you can easily find what you want in this display and save several dollars on your purchase as well.

When Mrs. Hanlon came here four weeks ago for a two weeks' demonstration, we did not think it possible to create so much interest, but every one seems surprised that such fine goods can be sold at such low prices, and we find that it is the advertising of hundreds of pleased customers who purchased Hair Goods during the early days of this sale that keeps up the interest.

Closing Day of the International Medical Congress

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Aug. 12.—The International Medical Congress, the most successful in the history of medicine, was brought to an end this afternoon by a speech by the Right Hon. John Burns, president of the local government board. He spoke on the relationship of medicine to the public health and praised the doctors for the vast improvements they had effected in the cure and prevention of disease, emphasizing his point by showing that as the result of medical and sanitary science, there had been 772,811 fewer deaths in England and Wales in the years from 1909 to 1911 than if the death rates of two decades earlier had continued.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Aug. 12.—The closing day of the International Medical congress saw all the sections in session. "Leptosis" gave rise to an interesting discussion in the bacteriology section.

Major E. R. Post of the Indian Medical service said that after years of experience he had reached the belief that the disease was contracted through infected clothing. He emphasized the importance of segregation and of sterilizing all clothing worn by lepers. "Climate and occupational influence in diseases of the ear" was the subject of a paper by Dr. Clarence Blake of Boston, Mass., in the otology section. He remarked that miners were especially prone to ear diseases because of the dust and detonations in a circumscribed space without the possibility of diffusion. In the same way persons engaged in trades productive of dust and grime were inclined to be affected.

Noise is the most important and injurious by-product of industry he said, "yet it is the last to receive attention."

The family of Mr. Thomas Lippincott went to the Jones grove yesterday where they picked.
Miss Annabel Grubb entertained a number of friends at tea.
The residence of Capt. James W. Owens was entered by burglars last night. Two dozen silver spoons were taken.
Mr. Clem McCrutch, a young school teacher, will soon leave for a term at Ada, O.

Fifty Years Ago Today.

Aug. 12.
Admiral Farragut and his little scattered fleet of ships were given an ovation at the Brooklyn navy yard. Examination of the vessel showed that repairs nearly equivalent to new construction would be necessary to fit her for service.

Twenty-five Years Ago Today.

General Sheridan was buried at Arlington after imposing funeral ceremonies at St. Matthew's Roman Catholic church in Washington.

It was received here by Mrs. J. W. Alderton, a Florida woman, who is visiting with relatives at 175 Hoover street. Mrs. Alderton was formerly Miss Fry. The man-o-war has the appearance of an eagle plumed as a hawk, except that it is pointed at both ends and is a dark green in color. It was sent to Mrs. Alderton by her husband from Miami, Fla.

Dr. Mahon Here Tomorrow.
Dr. L. T. Mahon, the specialist, whose advertisement appeared in yesterday's Advocate will be at the Hotel Warden tomorrow, Aug. 13.

Family Reunion.
The Swan-McClain reunion will be held Saturday, September 16, at Hlawa Park. Mr. Vernon. All relatives of the families are cordially invited to come and spend the day together.

No More Bodies.
Monday and Tuesday passed with no more bodies recovered from Buckeye Lake, as a result of the disaster to the pleasure boat, Wilma. Coroner Winkler will start his final inquiry into the cause of the accident within a few days.

Dorcas Picnic.
The Dorcas Bible class of the Central Church of Christ will hold its annual picnic at Moundbuilders Park, Thursday, all day. All members are urged to bring well filled baskets.

Case Continued.
The case of Frank Graef, charged with keeping his place in Fourth street open on Sunday, was called in Mayor Swartz's court Tuesday afternoon. On account of the absence of Graef's witnesses the case was continued.

Woman Fell on Street.
Mrs. Lena Brunner, who has been in failing health, became exhausted at the corner of Third and Main street at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning. She collapsed and a call was sent for Bazler & Bradley's ambulance. She was removed to the home of Mrs. Harrington in 222 South Pine street, where she resides.

Picnic Thursday.
The St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church congregation and Sunday school will hold their annual picnic Thursday afternoon at Moundbuilders Park. A cordial invitation is extended to the general public to join in the festivities. The afternoon will be spent in games and a good time in general. A picnic luncheon will be served.

Home From Vacation.
James Broughton, better known to his friends as "Sunny Jim," member of sales with an up-to-date shop in the Arcade Annex, has returned after a week's vacation through the East. During his absence he hobnobbed with the 400 at Newport. News danced with good looking girls at Atlantic City, plunged in the surf and took a ride up the Hudson river and secured many beautiful views taken by his trusty camera which always accompanies him on his vacation wanderings. Jim reports a great time and says he is planning a trip abroad for next year.

Can't Beat "GETS-IT" for Corns—It's Sure

Never Tried It Before?—You'll Marvel How It Makes Corns Vanish.

There never was anything like "GETS-IT" for corns, and there isn't anything like it now. It is the corn cure on a new principle. Put it on any corn in two seconds, it stops pain, the corn begins to shrivel and disappears. It never fails. Simplest thing you ever saw. No fussy bandages, no gross salves to turn healthy flesh "peely" and raw, no plasters that make corns bulge out. You corns won't pull and hurt way up to your heart. Lay aside your knife and razor. No more digging and tugging, and winching, no more bleeding, no more darning of blisters. "GETS-IT" never hurts healthy flesh. It is safe, painless, quick, simple, sure. For warts, calluses and bunions, too. "GETS-IT" is sold at all druggists at 25 cents a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. (Advertisement)

"Oh My, Oh My, What a Relief! 'GETS-IT' Stops Corn Pains Right Off and Gets Corns Every Time."

Summerland Beach, August 12—More than two thousand people listened to the famous lecture "The Almighty Dollar," delivered by Harold C. Kessinger in the Auditorium at Summerland Beach Monday evening.

If the hearty applause and rapt attention of his audience is any measure of a man's ability as a lecturer, Kessinger is indeed a success. He is eloquent and convincing. His lecture is an earnest prayer for more effective lives and less money grabbing.

Kessinger is a man 23 years of age—he has been editor of a newspaper, is a writer for LaFollette's magazine, and has been on the platform before some of the best Chautauqua audiences for four seasons. He is steadily winning a place as one of the best lecturers on the platform and enjoys the distinction of being the youngest man now in Chautauqua work of any prominence. "We must remember that besides making a living we are making a life," said Kessinger in his lecture, "I believe that the conservation of human lives is more important than the conservation of forest and streams. Harriman, the great railroad king once gave out some advice which, if followed, would mean the ruin of every city and town in the country. All of our great men give advice. That is one reason they are great men."

"Every fortune builder tells a young man to go to church, to be faithful to his employer, to be sober, industrious and frugal, punctual in keeping his engagements, careful about making promises and in fulfilling them, particular about where he spends his leisure hours, etc. It is the same advice they have been giving for years. It is good advice, has always been good and always will be. It is the way these fortune builders started. They practiced the common virtues. They were industrious, frugal and persistent in accumulating their first few thousand dollars, but this is not the way most of our great fortunes have been built up. They tell you nothing of the stock watered, or the stockholders and partners, defrauded and frozen out, of the juries and judges bribed, of the public men debauched, nor of the manipulating of business transactions where they were more interested in profit and loss than in right and wrong.

"One day Harriman let out some real advice, not the vanished rhetoric and moralizing they hand out."

"One day I made up my mind to try Resinol, and after using one jar of Resinol Ointment, and one cake of Resinol Soap, I saw the difference, and now my face is as clear as anybody's, and I certainly don't need to be ashamed to go out. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment cured me of one of the worst cases of eczema, I give it, that anybody ever saw." (Signed) Mr. C. Hellmuth, 5611 Appleton Street.

ECZEMA 25 YEARS FACE A MASS OF IT

Says "Resinol Cured Me of One of the Worst Cases Anybody Ever Saw."

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 20, 1912—"I had eczema for the last twenty-five years, and I could not go outside the door. My face was one mass of pimples, and not only the looks of it but the itching and burning pains I experienced were just dreadful. I had a great deal of sleep and had to keep dampened cloths on my face all night to relieve the pain. I had become disgusted with trying different things.

"One day I made up my mind to try Resinol, and after using one jar of Resinol Ointment, and one cake of Resinol Soap, I saw the difference, and now my face is as clear as anybody's, and I certainly don't need to be ashamed to go out. THE NEW DORMITORY AT SUMMERLAND BEACH.

to the newspapers as interviews and to young men in public addresses, but the real method conceived in greed and executed in selfishness, the advice to live a life of grabbing, preaching hypocritically a doctrine of helpfulness, but practicing persistently a life of greed and avarice. "Here is what Harriman said, 'Young man, take good care of your time. It is your first capital. Join a church, join the lodges, and the business men's associations. Pay your dues and make your contributions but never waste your time serving on committees and getting up things. These things will be done. They always have been and always will be. There always will be enough men in a community who will spend their time foolishly in doing these things. You will profit in three ways by your own interrupted work, by the absence of your competitor from his place of business and by his work for the good of all, including yourself."

"This was the real advice. Of course every man should pay attention to his work. No man should neglect that position or that business which supports himself and his loved ones. But every man owes certain debts to his community as a citizen. There are certain obligations to a community where a man makes his home and earns his living that he can pay with money. There are other obligations which only his personal service will pay.

"If all men practiced this materialistic philosophy of greed and selfishness preached by our great money kings, we would have no great hospitals for the care of our suffering, no public libraries, no public schools for the instruction of our youth, no lecture courses or Chautauques, no churches or Christian associations. Such a philosophy would mean the death of most of the great fraternal, educational and religious institutions that have been the protectors of our liberties and the glory of our republic.

"This has been called the land of the almighty dollar since Washington Irving coined this striking phrase in the 'Creole Village,' critics have repeatedly accused the American people of worshipping Mammon above all other gods. Stead, the great English journalist who went down on the Titanic, said, 'In England men make money in order to live. In America men live in order to make money.'

"Money is a power but its power is limited. It will purchase plenty but not peace. It will furnish your table with luxuries but will not furnish you an appetite to enjoy them. It will surround your sick bed with physicians but will not give you health. It will encompass you with a crowd of flatterers but will not procure you one good friend. It will bribe the conscience of the tongue of men but not of an accusing conscience. It will pay your debts, but not your debts to the laws of God. It will relieve some fears but not the fears of guilt, the terrors that crown the brow of death. For death stands as grim and terrible by the bedside of wealth as by the pallet of the poorest beggar, whom pitiless riches has thrust from the door. And when the worldly man is on the edge of his grave, on the precipice of eternity, realizing that all is vanity, which he has toiled for and sinned for, this voice comes sounding from the throne of right, 'What profiteth a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?'

"A better day is dawning, a day when the brotherhood of man will be a reality as well as a dream. All poets have forecasted its coming, and every human heart has longed for its realization. It will be a day when each man will really be his brother's keeper; when we shall have less of the rule of gold and more of the Golden Rule."

On Monday afternoon Mr. Enos Bacon proved to be a versatile entertainer. His readings, solos and stories, interspersed with jokes and funniness were highly entertaining. Mr. Bacon has a remarkable voice, apparently a double voice, and since a small boy he has possessed this wonderful ability to sing in either a clear soprano or a deep baritone.

The Titus Grand Opera quartette entertains this afternoon and evening in costume.

POLICE CHIEF OF COSHOCTON SUES CITY OFFICIALS

Coshocton, O., Aug. 12—Mandamus proceedings for the purpose of recovering $2,870 back salary and an additional $750 in fees for the period from August 1, 1909 to January 1, 1913, were started in common pleas court by Chief of Police J. R. Maple, through his attorney, B. F. Voorhees, against Mayor Cassingham, the seven members of the city council, Safety Director Timmons, Auditor Evans and Treasurer Hershman Monday.

The petition sets forth that Mr. Maple was appointed chief August 28, 1903 and on July 31, 1909, was notified by Mayor Hamilton that P. B. Johnston had been appointed chief. August 7, 1909 Maple commenced an action in mandamus and after the case had gone through the supreme court he was restored to office by Mayor Cassingham. He asks for $70 per month from the time he was notified by Hamilton. He also alleges that fees amounting to $750 were collected by the mayor and have not been paid to him. He asks for a writ of mandamus to compel mayor to pay him the $750 and for a writ of mandamus compelling the council, safety director and auditor to perform the duties required of them in paying the $75 salary per month.

It is the largest number of writs of mandamus asked for in any action in the local courts in recent years.

RASH ON ARMS ITCHED AND BURNED

Especially at Night. At Times Got No Sleep At All. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

400 South Dearborn Ave., Chicago, Ill.—"I was attacked with a breaking out on the inside of my arms. It was a small rash or pimples and it itched and burned, especially at night, so that before I knew it I had made myself sore. I had to wear the finest kind of cotton underwear, no woolens at all, because the least thing irritated it and made it much worse. The rash itched and smarted until at times I got no sleep at all. "I had this trouble and took treatments for about one year, but they only gave me relief while taking them. Then I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I got relief right away. I made a good strong lather of Cuticura Soap and washed myself every night and morning, drying myself with a good soft towel, and then applied the Cuticura Ointment. In three months I was a well man again." (Signed) H. W. Foley, Nov. 5, 1912.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Prevent dry, thin and falling hair, allay itching and irritation, and promote the growth and beauty of the hair. Frigate shampoo with Cuticura Soap, applied by occasional dressings with Cuticura Ointment, afford a most effective and economical treatment. A single set is often sufficient. Cuticura Soap (25c) and Cuticura Ointment (50c) are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura Dept. T Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

JOIN THE JOLLY THRONG AND GO TO CEDAR POINT

Thursday will be the one big gala day for all those who take advantage of the Elks excursion to visit beautiful Cedar Point. The special train will leave Newark at 8 a. m. and returning will leave Sandusky at 8 p. m. The train will consist of all vestibule coaches and will only make two stops for passengers after leaving this city, Utopia and Mt. Vernon. The public is given a cordial invitation to join the antlered herd for a day of frolic and recreation at the famous summer resort on the shores of old Lake Erie.

Messrs. Earl Murphy of this city and Clyde Reasoner of Zanesville, members of the state staff of Elks, left Monday morning to be present at the opening of the State reunion of Elks and to prepare for the big program of Thursday. The bathing suit parade will occur as previously announced at high noon. All bathers led by the Mansfield band and Walter's famous military band will parade the island. At 4 o'clock the ladies will contest for handsome and valuable souvenirs at 7:00.

Newark lodge of Elks has left nothing undone to make the day a most enjoyable one for all and that they will succeed is beyond conclusion. Elks and their friends will be present from all over Ohio and there is some to be seen here. Purchase a ticket, join with the Elks and help celebrate at the Point Thursday. The fare is only $1.50 for the round trip, children 75 cents. Don't miss this big mid-summer excursion, one delightful day at the most famous bathing resort in the country.

Little Benny's Notebook

I wrote in my history book about Optimism and Pessimism today, rereading this.

Optimism and Pessimism. Optimism is what makes us think we feel happy when we feel lousy. Pessimism is what makes us think we feel lousy when we feel happy.

If you are an optimist, nothing can make you mad, hardly. If a pessimist frowns down and brakes his right leg, he sees, G. wizz, it's a good thing it wasn't my left leg because I use my left the most when I walk. If he brakes his left leg, he sees, I sort of am glad it wasn't my right leg, it must be a lousy thing to brake your right leg. If he brakes both of his legs, he sees, G. I'm a lucky fella, now I can set around and think a while, instead of walking and falling. This is the reason why it's not much fun to hurt a pessimist. The only way to keep a optimist from feeling that something worse could happen to him is to tell him, and even then if you don't tell him quick enough he'll be thinking you're doing him a favor by getting him a horse lawing ride in a horse which he doesn't have to pay for.

But if you are a pessimist nothing can keep you from feeling lousy. It is a pessimist frowns down and don't make anything except may be a brick when the payment, he sees, That's just my luck, I wrote in my book, carrying a cigar or something in my back pocket, and then when I walk it off my back. You couldn't even make a pessimist happy if you dived and left him a million dollars. He would just say, Now I guess he expects me to go to his old town and after this my pockets will be so full of money it will probably get my knee out of shape and the time, and I wouldn't be surprised if I saw the kids in the block start to follow me and over the city to ask me for a cent.

THE 4 SAVED SAVED CASE

Dr. B. N. Alsworth, physician, Purvis, Miss., gives interesting details of the cyclone that devastated that section. We quote: "I suppose you saw in the papers that we had a cyclone. It was a little town about 100 miles from the coast. My family and I were out there, but my drug store was swept to the winds. We are picking up slowly. I found four bottles of Fulton's Renal Compound unbroken and gave them to a lady whom the other physicians had given up (Bright's Disease). She came to me as she heard that I had returned to practice. I put her on the Renal Compound and she is now nearly well. But I need more. Send me two dozen. In haste."

"B. N. ALSWORTH, M.D." The doctor has since made favorable reports in several other cases of Bright's Disease in which he prescribed the Renal Compound.

If you have Bright's Disease you owe it to yourself and family to try Fulton's Renal Compound before giving up. It can be had at F. D. Hall, druggist.

Ask for pamphlet on our investigation into the curability of Bright's Disease, or write John J. Fulton Co., San Francisco. (Advertisement)

STARTS ANOTHER DIVORCE SUIT AT COLUMBUS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Aug. 12.—As the result of further differences since their first divorce proceedings were dismissed, several months ago, Helen Tallmadge Lindenberg, through her attorneys, filed a second suit for divorce in the county courts today, against her husband, Paul Lindenberg, member of a prominent and wealthy Columbus family. Extreme cruelty is the ground alleged in this petition.

Several months ago Mrs. Lindenberg filed suit for divorce, but after several days a settlement was reached whereby Lindenberg received his children and his wife received $100 a month. This settlement resulted in a reconciliation, which now appears to have been futile.

ASSEMBLY

members is necessary to impeach. Although 75 votes constitute a majority of the House as it now stands, seventy-six votes are needed, inasmuch as the full membership is 150. One member, Alfred J. Kennedy of New York has resigned since election. Indications were that it would be nearly one o'clock before the speaker would call the assembly to order. The Senate planned to mark time till after the battle in the Lower House. Governor Sulzer, heavy-eyed from his long vigil of last night snatched over to the capitol a full hour before his customary time and sought the seclusion of his private office.

The usual morning chat with the newspaper men was omitted and the governor's secretary announced there would be no word from the governor till the Assembly had voted on the impeachment resolution.

Because of the probable closeness of the vote on the impeachment resolution and because some Democrats feel that the Assembly should not attempt to rush it through, it is possible that the assembly will defer its action for several days—possibly a week.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Albany, N. Y., Aug. 12.—That Governor William Sulzer will be subjected to the ordeal of an impeachment trial as a result of today's session of the Assembly was the confident prediction of the governor's opponents.

Despite the fact that on the Levy resolution calling for the impeachment of the governor for "wilful and corrupt conduct in office and for high crimes and misdemeanors" the Republicans at last night's session which extended into the early hours of today, stood almost solidly against immediate consideration. Minority Leader Hylan and several others of that party made it plain that this did not indicate their hostility to the general proposition. Telegrams were sent to each of the twenty Democratic absentees, urging attendance at today's session and the Republican absentees were served with like notices.

Last night's vote on the question of beginning the impeachment proceedings without delay indicated that only eleven of the fifty absentees are needed to make up the seventy-six votes necessary to the carrying out of a renewal of the bitterness which characterized portions of last night's debate.

The resolution under consideration, today based upon the report of the Frawley legislative committee sustains the contention in that report that Governor Sulzer has been guilty of fraudulent report to the secretary of state of contributions received by him in the gubernatorial campaign, that he converted to his private use in campaign contributions; that he engaged in stock speculations at the time when he was governor and was pressing legislation hostile to the New York stock exchange; that he induced witnesses to refuse to testify before the Frawley committee and used his office to reward those who favored his policies and punished those who opposed them.

The Senate will mark time until the assembly has an opportunity to formulate its program.

Six Democratic assemblymen who voted last night for the adoption of the Frawley report were summoned to the executive chamber by Governor Sulzer at noon today. The governor's purpose in so doing was not made clear but it was apparent that he hoped to gain their support.

Five of the six responded to the invitation, but four of them were told the governor had changed his mind and did not want to see them. The fifth, Assemblyman Campbell, was closeted with the governor and his counsel for ten minutes. When the interview ended Mr. Campbell declined to discuss it, asserting it was confidential.

A fellow member of the assembly said, however, that the subject of the interview was the constitutionality of the impeachment proceedings.

Two hours after the time set for meeting found the situation in the Assembly chamber practically unchanged, although a throng that rivalled the one of last night was standing in patient expectation. Half of the crowd was women. Speaker Smith glanced over the empty rows of members seats and ventured the opinion that it would be evening before a vote on the impeachment resolution would be reached.

The gathering in the governor's office was swollen by the arrival of Republican and Progressive members and a number of Democrats who voted last night against the organization.

Tentative plans of the Democratic leaders were put through the impeachment resolution late this afternoon and adjourn for a day or two to prepare articles of impeachment for presentation to the Senate.

MEEKISON WAIVES EXAMINATION AND GIVES $5,000 BOND

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cleveland, Aug. 12.—C. C. Meekison, Henry county auditor, waived examination when arraigned in Justice Calvert's court today on a charge of attempted robbery of Warnes and Kilpatrick tax law referendum petitions from the Ohio Equity association. He was bound over to the grand jury.

John D. Cargould of Akron, alleged to be an accomplice of Meekison's, appeared in court and was arrested on the same charge. He also waived examination and was held to the grand jury.

Meekison, accompanied by his wife and brother, B. A. Meekison, came here from his Napoleon home late last night. They arose early this morning and after breakfast, Meekison had a preliminary conference with his attorney, W. H. Boyd.

Mrs. Meekison declared her faith in her husband. "I am associated with every detail of my husband's movements," said Mrs. Meekison. "Like any woman who trusts her husband, I know he will be found innocent."

L. M. Scherle, arrested last night on a charge of swearing falsely to initiative and referendum petitions sent the night in the city jail.

It is not thought that the special grand jury now in session will consider the Meekison and Cargould cases, but that they will go over until the convening of the regular grand jury on September 2.

Cargould came to Cleveland last night, keeping his identity secret. Today's court hearing was preceded by numerous conferences. Meekison, Cargould and W. H. Boyd, attorney for both, talked over the course they expect to follow. Attorneys W. H. Miller and Frank T. Dunbar of Columbus conferred with C. F. Congwer, secretary of the Ohio Equity Association.

Miller said that if Meekison waived examination he would make public the evidence the Equity Association has gathered against him.

Meekison's bond was continued at $5,000. Cargould's bond was also fixed at $5,000 and was immediately provided.

Cargould first appeared in the referendum cases several days ago when he made affidavit that Meekison took him to the fourth floor of the Leader-News building on the night of Saturday, August 2, to show him where the office of the Ohio Equity Association were. Cargould declined to see C. F. Congwer there. Cargould denied that the visit was for the purpose of removing referendum petitions from the office.

W. H. Miller of Columbus, attorney for the Equity Association, gave out a statement following the hearing, in which he charged that Meekison waived examination in order to prevent the facts against him from becoming public at this time.

Meekison wanted to prevent the Equity Association from presenting its sworn testimony in open court. Miller declared, "He knows the evidence taken before the grand jury will be secret and the public will not have an opportunity to hear it."

Cargould, asked for a statement after his arrest, said: "Not a word. I'm going back to Akron and go to work." C. O. Smith, president of the Ash-

WATER MAINS TO SCHEIDLER TRACT WEST OF NEWARK

A contract has been made between the city waterworks department and the Scheidler estate for the construction of a water main from the west corporation line to the Scheidler property in West Main street. Fourteen hundred feet of six inch main will be put down at a cost of about $1200, which expense will be borne by the estate. It is understood that this tract will be laid out in lots soon and a new addition opened up. A fire hydrant will be installed at the end of the main, thus affording the district some fire protection.

RAILWAY CARS COLLIDE AND INJURE SEVEN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cincinnati, O., Aug. 12.—Seven persons were injured, three seriously here today when two South Covington and Cincinnati street railway cars crashed together at the Ohio approach of the suspension bridge. The refusal of the brakes to work properly on one car that was descending a slight incline, caused its speed to increase until it crashed into the rear end of a car that preceded it. Both cars were crowded at the time. E. T. Speers, conductor of the front car and Rose Martin and Stella Brinston, young women living in Covington, Ky., were removed to the city hospital and it is believed they are suffering from internal injuries as well as numerous cuts and bruises.

OFFICIALS LOOK INTO LOVE AFFAIR OF THE PRINCE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Los Angeles, Aug. 12.—Accusations of Mrs. Clara Scherle, a Vienna laundress, that Prince Stanislaus Sulkowski of Austria, who married Miss Mary Louise Pierce of this city recently, induced Mrs. Melcher to come to this country for immoral purposes, will be brought to the attention of the federal grand jury, according to Dudley W. Robinson, assistant United States district attorney. Mr. Robinson said today that if an indictment resulted, the Prince would be arrested if he returned to the United States.

The Prince, his bride and her mother are now in Vancouver.

BANK ROBBERS SHOOT MAYOR; LOOT POSTOFFICE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
West Liberty, Ind., Aug. 12.—Former Mayor L. W. Swen was shot, the safe in the local postoffice partly wrecked and street lamps shot out by three bank robbers here early today. Swen received a load of buckshot in his left eye. The robbers fled but whether they obtained any booty has not been ascertained.

BARNUM & BAILEY CIRCUS EMPLOYEES INJURED IN WRECK

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Omaha, Neb., Aug. 12.—Thirteen persons, all employees of the Barnum & Bailey circus, whose train was struck at Richfield, Neb., by a Rock Island passenger equipment train returning from the Denver Conclave last night were brought to the Clarkson hospital in this city this morning, all suffering fatal or serious injuries.

A relief train took a number of physicians from Omaha to the scene of the wreck. Richfield is a small town, without telegraph facilities and the serious nature of the wreck did not become known until several hours after it occurred. In addition to the thirteen taken to the local hospital, twenty-nine other injured were brought to Omaha. The wreck occurred shortly after midnight. The circus train was pulling into the siding at Richfield but had not cleared the main line when the passenger train struck it.

when a number of former Newark men, members of the lodge are expected to be present. The date has been set for next Monday evening and an invitation has been extended to Licking County Odd Fellows as well as all visiting brothers who may happen to be in the city on that date.

PAVING OF UNION STREET WILL BE DONE BY FAIR TIME

Unless some unforeseen difficulty arises, the contractors now laying the paving on Union street from Pine to the city limits, will have the job completed before the county fair opens this fall. The work is being pushed rapidly and instead of being a means of interfering with the traffic to the fair grounds, it will improve the conditions in that part of the city and make the trip to and from the park gates more pleasant.

DEATH CLAIMS A PIONEER RESIDENT OF LICKING COUNTY

Mrs. Sarah A. Thompson Passes Away Early Tuesday Morning at the City Hospital.

Death claimed one of the pioneer residents of Newark when Mrs. Sarah A. Thompson, widow of David L. Thompson died at the City Hospital at 2:15 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Thompson has been in the hospital suffering a cerebral hemorrhage and partial paralysis. Five years ago Mr. and Mrs. Thompson celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

Surviving the mother are the following children: David Thompson of this city, E. W. Thompson of Peru, Albert Thompson of Peru and Mrs. Edgar Grigsby of Zanesville. Mrs. Thompson has been a lifelong member of the Second Presbyterian church, but owing to the pastor's absence from the city Rev. G. Bohon Schmitt of St. Paul's Lutheran church will officiate at the funeral service which will be held on Wednesday afternoon at her home in 322 West Church street. Burial in Cedar Hill cemetery.

TO CONSTRUCT SCHOOL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chicago, Aug. 12.—Construction of the Pullman Technical High school, for which the late George M. Pullman left a bequest of $1,200,000, fifteen years ago, will be begun early in the fall, it was announced today by the board which has the fund in charge. The board decided years ago that the bequest was not sufficient to erect and maintain a school as planned. The desired sum was obtained.
